

Mike Gunn

video clips

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jjqmtZz113s>

Mike Gunn's history is as interesting and entertaining as his comedy. A misspent youth and a series of grim jobs cultivated his cynical outlook on life and a perverse desire led him to the world of stand-up. Early in his career Mike was supporting the likes of Jo Brand and Alan Davies. He now headlines at Jongleurs and other top comedy venues and is rapidly reaching cult status on the circuit. In the wake of recent evidence of escalating drug abuse among teenagers, Mike takes his anti-drugs show to schools around the UK. Mike is also a contributor for The Guardian newspaper. He has also written for Time Out, The List, The 11 O'clock Show (Ch4) and even Match of The Day Magazine.

Credits

TV

- The Gas (CH4)
- The Comedy Store (LWT)
- Live At Jongleurs (CH5)
- Time Gentlemen Please (Sky One)
- Regular on the Poker Channel

Stage

- Good Grief
- Uncut

Festivals

- Melbourne Comedy Festival
- Edinburgh Festival
- Cambridge Festival

Current Projects

- Just finished recording first stand-up CD
- 2 Smart4Drugs Roadshow
- Regular at Jongleurs

"Mike Gunn will make you die laughing." The Guardian
"One of the 10 leading stand-ups in Britain." Johnny Vegas
"Piercingly funny... Fiendishly funny as dry as a dead mans bones." The List